BUFFALO TOURS' TOP PICKS

Tiger Leaping Gorge

$280PP

Visit one of the most spectacular sights in China as the Yangtze river flows between Jade Dragon Snow Mountain and Haba Snow mountain. This gorge is only 25 metres wide at its narrowest point and is said to have been traversed by a tiger trying to escape a hunter in ancient Chinese myths. Lined with waterfalls, villages and terraces, this stunning river route offers fantastic views.

Local Life:

Gourmet Beijing – Ghost Street

$216pp

Uncover the secrets behind Beijing's not-so-spooky Ghost Street, one of the city's most vibrant and bustling street food enclaves. Meander through the stalls brimming with dumplings, barbeque and savoury desserts while digging into the area's funerary past. Along the way, get your fill of Beijing's very best eats between bouts of leisurely strolling.

Pixian County and Sichuan Cuisine Discovery

$355pp

Discover the most popular cuisine in all of China with a tour around Pixian County where the famous Pixian broad bean is grown. This bean is fermented with Sichuan peppers and chili to make the infamously spicy soul of Sichuan cuisine, and was first created 300 years ago by one special family.

Local Life:

Shanghai French Concessions

$207pp

Explore the inner-workings of Shanghai's most charming residential district, the French Concession, on a half-day journey by foot. Weave through narrow estate alleyways, mingle with locals in public parks while they practice Tai Chi and sample scrumptious egg tarts after a wander through a buzzing wet market. This is the perfect day-in-the-life of Shanghai's warm and unassuming locals in the city's most idyllic district.

Local Life:

Beijing Backstreets

$145pp

Stroll through oddball commercial alleyways selling everything from vegetables to artificial legs, chat with locals in unique outdoor exercise parks and meet the man behind Beijing's high-stakes cricket fighting culture on an in-depth, endearing discovery of authentic Beijing life.
